GRAFTON HIGH SCHOOL

Superintendent Dr. Connors

Principal Mr. Pignataro

Assistant Principal Mrs. Cohen

Welcome to OUR school

EDITORED

Thanks to the class for giving us the privilege of working on this yearbook. We tried to find something in this book that we could carry throughout to represent our class as a unit. We went with the red theme. Our class color will forever be red and we will always remember the intense color wars which instilled an enduring prid in such a tint. So wear you red proud, remember 2011, and enjoy!

love,

Les Miserables

"Les Miserables has been performed non-stop for the past 26 years and that is a true testament to its timeless story. Every time we turn on the news today, we are hearing this story play over and over again. Countries throughout the world hold out hope for change just as they did hundreds of years ago and will continue to do for hundreds of years to come. This story doesn't just focus on a group of people seeking change in the world, It tells the story of one man seeking change in himself. Valjean continues to stretch and change not only to 'right a better mans wrongs' but to become a better man" -Megan Patrick, Director

The Dining Room

The Dining Room is another huge success for GHS

The stage lit up Friday, and Saturday night and once more Sunday afternoon as The Dining Room cast and crew entertained the family and friends who watched them perform. The cast included the leading actresses: Megan Elsier, Paige Fasold, Cleo Merrill, and Merry Ryer. And the leading actors were: Phil L'lesperance, Byran Gilgallon, Joe Morin, and Rocco Praderio. All eight talented performers played many different parts as the show took the audience to many different scenes that all revolved around the Dining Room. This comedic trip included scenes from a little girl's birthday party, to an emotional breakdown of a young mother. In the end though, everyone realized that the show was "To all of us."

"To all of us."

Thank you L'lesperance family for letting the cast and crew borrow your dining room set for their show!

All of the cast and crew should be extremely proud of their work and thrilled to be part of Grafton theater.

Repeat Champions

What is it like to be Red?

Coming into Homecoming week, the seniors from the class of 2011 had something big to live up to. Being the returning champs, the pressure was on the be champions once more. Through determination and sheer competitiveness, the Class of 2011 sweeped first place all week in competions from a bright neon day to country western day to penny wars. As Friday rolled around the corner, the field events would challenge the senior's athletic capabilities. Because they had beaten the Senior Class of 2010 the previous year due to field event domination, the seniors were confident in their skills. Though the juniors put up an effort to be recognized, they were no match for the Class of 2011. Not many get to be Number One twice, but we do.

Strides for Seshu

A group of Seshu's classmates arranged a walk to raise money to help his family with the cost of treating his cancer. On a beautiful, crisp, Autumn day, this idea came to fruition. A lot of money was raised, thanks to his friends, classmates, and the Grafton community. Most of all, Seshu and his family saw the incredible outpouring of love and support.

"Our school journey is all about moments. As always, America's sweetheart, Brett Pavre said it best. In 1998, he had just won his first Superbowl, but as he jumped onto the podium and hoisted the trophy above his head with all his friends and his teammates and his coaches, all he could think was 'is this it?'"

Eric Nolin

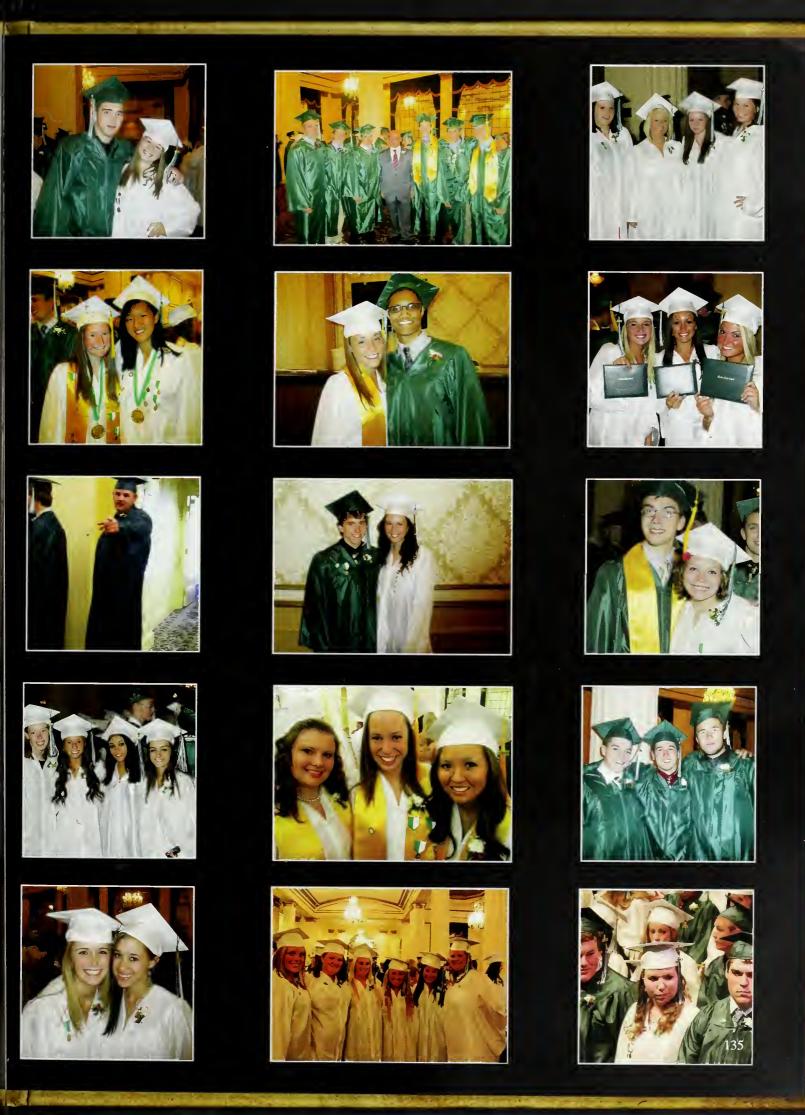

"But who am I to tell you wha success is, and how it is connected? Go ahed an ask anyone on this stage. We are so successful they put us up at the Hanover Theatre. And congratulations to our class, the Class of 2011. I thank all of you for an exceedingly wonderful four years. I thank all my teachers for their continuing passion, and I thank my closest friends for helping shape my journey."

Nick Procella

"Six o'clock and I see junior year. Finally we were upperclassmen and on our way to the second half of our high school careers. I wish I could relive that first day of junior year because it was the first day I finally knew I would, in fact, not be here forever. It was a time where the far away future wasn't so far away anymore."

Corey,

Congratulations, we are so proud of you and all of you accomplishments! You have never ceased to amaze us with your kindness, dedication, determination and passion in all you do and all you have done. Don't ever change; we love you just the way you are. Best of luck in College!

Love always, Mom, Dad, Kayla, Chris & Izzy

It seems like yesterday you were just the baby of our family, and now look at you. You have turned in to a wonderful young lady with so much potential. We are so proud of you. Your ambition and drive will make you successful in school and business. Family, friendships and love are what will make you happy in life. Always remember to maintain a balance of work and spending time with the people you love. You are used to hearing thoughts and quotes from us. Here are two that are appropriate for this time in your life

'You better live your best act your best and think your best today, for today is the sure preparation for tomorrow and all the other tomorrows that follow."

'People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."

Congratulations on all of your hard work. Continue to make us proud.

We Love You! Mom and Dad

Michelle Xia

Dear Michelle,

In your Chinese given name, we wished for you to be a beautiful and talented girl. What a beautiful and thoughtful young lady you have become-it seems like yesterday you were this happy baby, full of energy and magic. We are so proud to see you continue to excel. You have always shown us your excellent abilities and passion in baseball, soccer, lacrosse, cross county, and basketball (and chess!) as well as in scholasic activities and classes. Your drive to participate and your ability to understand and apply your knowledge and skills makes us proud to know that you will be the best in whatever you decide to do, and your sense of humor and wonderful personality will always be a source of happiness for those around you! Continue to follow your heart.

With great love and pride, Mom, Tom, Grandpa, Grandma, Uncle Ming

Marita Steinmetz

Brian McCarthy

Congratulations Big Guy! We're proud of all you've done and look forward to your future adventures!

Love, Your Family

Brian.

We have thoroughly enjoyed watching you play football and Lax at GHS. You are not only a member of the teams but a leader to all on the field. You have always set lofty goals for yourself and your determination has helped you achieve them, most especially becoming a member of National Honor Society. We admire you for that tenacity. We know that you will excel at UNH and look forward to seeing that happen. We love you and are very proud of you. Love,

Mom, Dad, Chris, Jeff & Rosie

Billy Olsen

Your love of music began as a young boy and has developed into a passion - one that will take you into the next phase of your life's journey. We are so proud of your accomplishments, both musically and otherwise, and we look forward to what lies ahead. As your journey continues, know that we will be with you every step of the way.

Love always, Your biggest fans, Dad, Mom and Matt

Brian Tatro

Brian.

You boarded the bus full of energy, a love of people and a great sense of humor. You brought a smile to the faces of people around you; your energy was contagious. You made us laugh and entertained us with your stories and one-liners. Through the years you have matured into a caring, intelligent, empathetic, polite young man. You entertained us with hockey games, your love of music, and your sense of humor. Soon you will be off to college to begin the next step in your life journey. We hope your journey brings you the same happiness that you have brought to us. We love you!

Mom and Dad
